

July 7, 1983 - p. 2

On July 5th I received my invitation to Rebecca Colville's 90th birthday party on August 7th. Ken Colville wrote the invitation. When John and I were at the Colville's on Sunday night (7/3/83), Jean told John that she was going to invite him. Since his grandfather's sister worked for the Colville's for 45 years, Jean feels that it is necessary that a Bubermak be present at Becky's party. Done, John will be / has been invited.
